My dearest Betty:

Meeting you at Monroe has made my coming to Rochester most advantageous. The moments I have spent with you will live with me perpetually. Few people that I have met have possessed the desirable and loving qualities which you cherish.

I have every reason to believe that each moment you spend at Smith will be as joyful and pleasant as the hour of your scholarship notice. I know that Smith will benefit greatly because of your presence.

My best wishes to you for a very enjoyable summer at work and play. Without you, this summer will seem to be an eternity. I will miss you immensely and will be looking forward to our reunion.

There is no need for my continuing to write. Words could never express my love for you. I know you will always enjoy the very best in life. May God bless you and keep you always.

All my love,
Nick

THE 1952 MONROLOG

Presented by
The Senior Class
Monroe High School
Rochester, New York

To the fairest high school of them all we will sing with hearty will,

Foreword

Now we are Seniors; with all the eager expectancy of youth, we look forward to the future without hesitation or fear; indeed, with hope, confidence and optimism. For we, the Class of '52, are aware of now being on the threshold of new, broader horizons—career, college, or marriage.

But as we look eagerly to the future, so do we look back longingly upon the past five sometimes wonderful, sometimes trying years.

In those years, we have witnessed a world frantically searching for peace, and we have been vividly aware of the many epoch-making events that have occurred—the presidential elections, the activities of the United Nations, the emergence of war in the Far East. These we have felt and these we shall remember. Yet we shall also keep with us other memories—memories of Monroe High.

For, it is here at Monroe, we have learned, through the space of five short years, the meaning of maturity, of friendship, of loyalty.

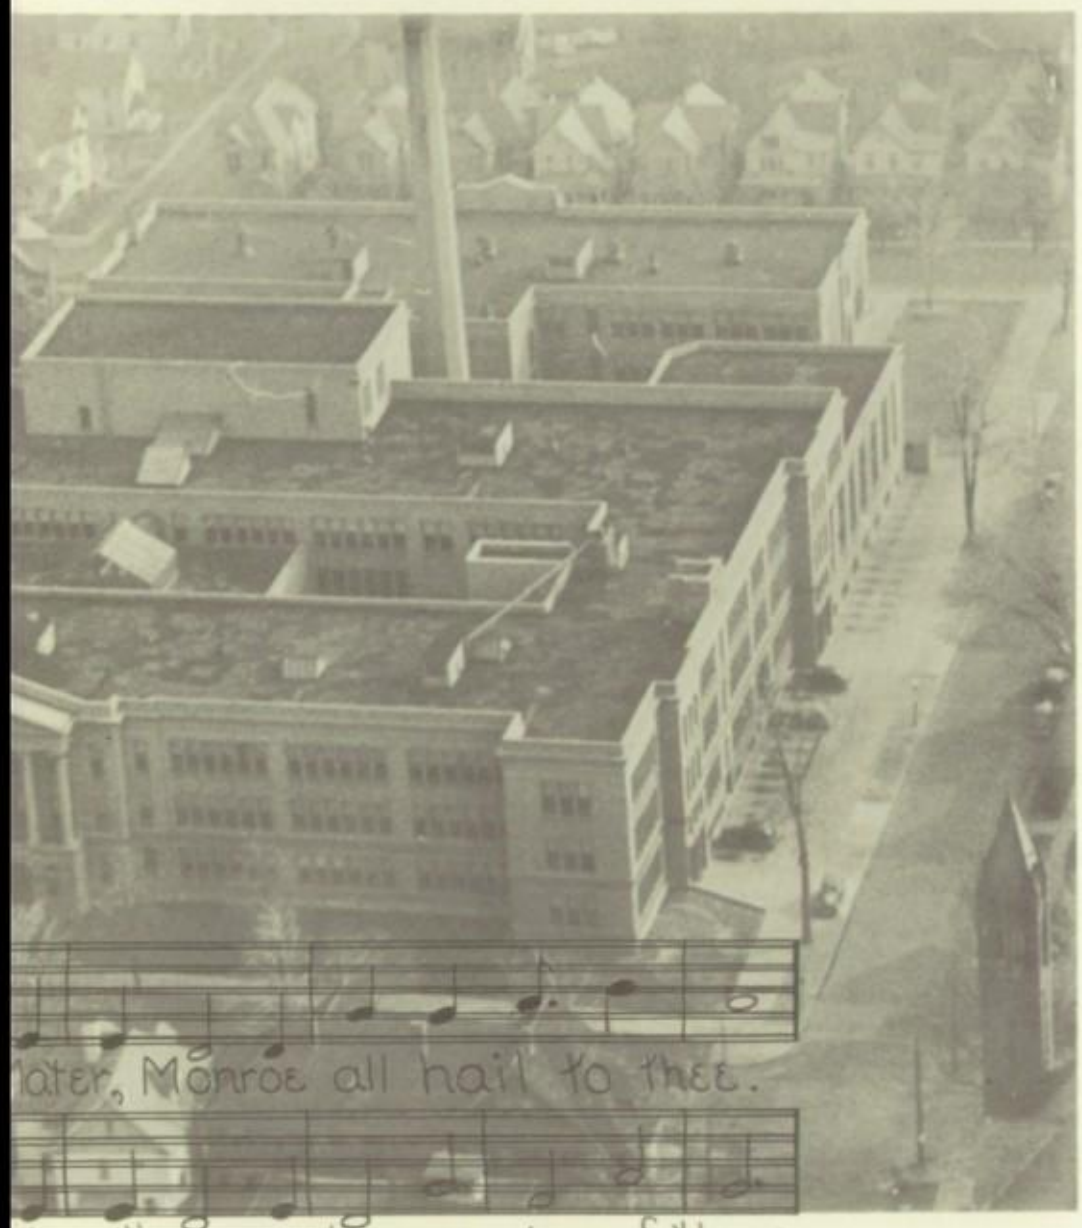
Refrain

Hail Alma Mater, our Alm

We'll love thee ever, all voic

We will sing of joyous victory, on diamond, field, and track.

Till the echoes sound in every hall, till our hearts in answering thrill.



ater, Monroe all hail to thee.

together, and ever sing of thee.

What memories of you, Monroe, shall we carry away with us? Perhaps it will be those of Wednesday morning assemblies, of Spring elections, with all their fervid campaigning, of classes that lasted too long, and lunch periods that didn't.

Is it any wonder then, that we should want to keep these precious moments in our hearts forever? That, in essence, is the purpose of this yearbook, to preserve these moments, these memories for us always; to help recall to us the teachers who have taught us, the friends we have made, the things we have done—this is the role Monrolog plays for us now. It is through Monrolog, the key to the door of our high school days, that we, the Class of '52, wish to thank you, Monroe, for those five years so well and so fully spent in what is truly "the fairest high school of them all."

Midst the golden haze of high school days, our hearts to thee turn back.

We

Miss Laura Spurr
Homeroom 101

We realize that the senior homeroom teachers of Monroe High School have been extremely patient and understanding with the twenty-five or thirty students in their charge. For five years they have had to listen to our jokes, hear our troubles with sympathetic ears, contend with our noise and incessant chatter, and, when we became Seniors, more often than not they were the object of our numerous gags.

Although several of the senior homerooms have been disrupted either this year or in one of the previous four years, the students of each room are thinking with fond memories of their homeroom teachers of the past as well as the present.

Homeroom 345 will always remember Miss Anne Jackman, who, because of a broken hip, has not been with them for most of the senior year. This year homeroom 262 welcomed Mr. Raymond Haughton who replaced Mr. Norman Mueller, now a teacher at Edison Technical High School. Miss Laura Spurr returned last September to wind up homeroom 101's stay at Monroe in true "senior-year" fashion. Mr. Paul Matheis, followed by Mr. John Wiles, supervised a homeroom of future '52 graduates. Miss Irene Kelly, Mr. Raymond Savage, Miss Lucille Reuschle, Miss Grace Murray, and Mr. John Ferner have had the roughest time for they have been subject to their groups for all five years.

When we entered Monroe, we were told that our homeroom teachers would act as second parents to us, guiding and advising during the school day. For this great service, we again express our sincere thanks to the guardians of our "home-away-from-home".

In appreciation of the patience, wisdom, understanding, and consideration which they have shown to us, we, the Senior Class of 1952, dedicate this year-book to the senior homeroom teachers.

School Activities

Dear Betty,

The convention, first lunch, everything about this year has been swell, great, and super-terrific. I can understand why Smith gets Betty. It makes me feel awful good to say I'm known as fine and as sweet a gal as you.

Best of luck and wishes.

Love,

A Message to Miss Sheehan

Dear Miss Sheehan,

September, 1947, marked a milestone in the history of Monroe High School, for it was the beginning of your successful career as principal. On that date, also, the Class of 1952 as eighth graders entered these hallowed walls to begin their secondary education. You made this transition from grammar school a pleasant and challenging experience. In spite of the many duties incumbent upon you, you have given unselfishly of your time and advice in helping us realize our responsibilities in Monroe and this community. Be assured, Miss Sheehan, that you have our gratitude and admiration, and that we leave Monroe High School determined to become world citizens worthy of the trust you have placed in us.

Gratefully,
THE CLASS OF 1952

A Message to Mr. Berman

Dear Mr. Berman,

For your ever-ready and wise advice, your cheerful greeting for each of us, and for your capable execution of the numerous duties of your office, we, the Class of '52, wish to say "Thank you, Mr. Berman," and take this opportunity to wish you continued success and every happiness in your career.

Gratefully,

Class of 1952

Despite world turmoil we have carried on our school days as normally as possible. Last year we sponsored a dance which became a traditional Junior dance, and the long-awaited trophy cases were installed in the foyer. This year a memorial was started for our classmates now serving in Korea. High point of our Senior year was our Senior Prom. Long after graduation we will cherish the knowledge and recall the joys of our "student days" at Monroe.

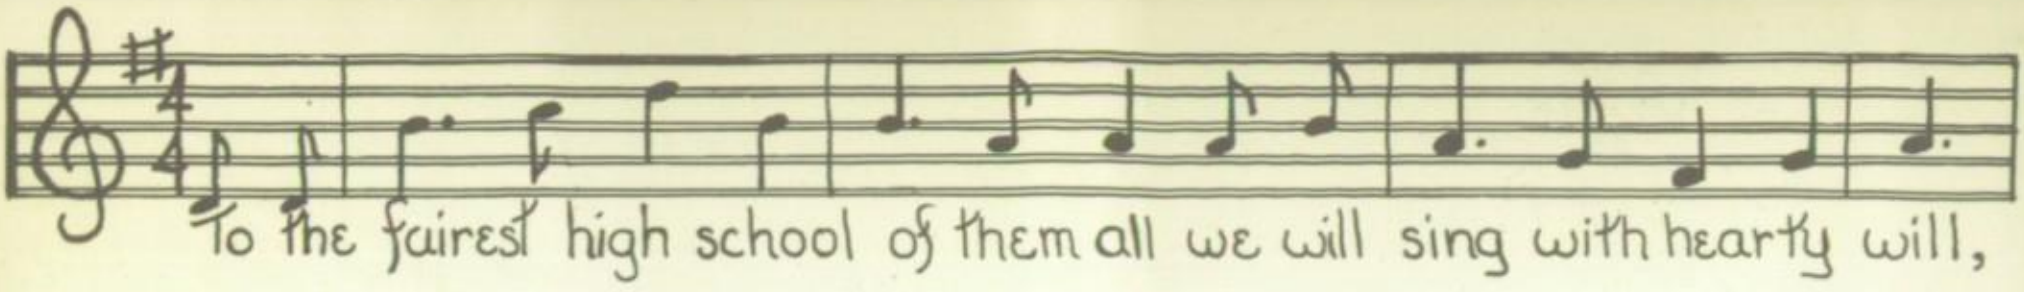
In Memoriam

Dear to her classmates and teachers alike, Laura Jean Gouger was taken suddenly from the midst of a happy life. The pleasant memories of Laura we cherish are of an infinite number—her prowess and grand sportsmanship in athletics, her quick "Hello" for everyone, and her industry and perseverence are but a few. And so, the Class of 1952 remembers Laura Jean Gouger in hopes that we may all live a fuller life for having known her.

A friend to all,

. . . on the job at Pfaudler's

. . . or at play with her pet.



Last Will and Testament

We, THE SENIORS OF MONROE HIGH SCHOOL, of the city of Rochester, in the County of Monroe and State of New York, being of unsound minds but pleasant memories, do make, publish and declare this our Last Will and Testament, in the manner following, that is to say:

FIRST, to our principle, Miss Sheehan, we bequeath a quiet and orderly assembly hall.

SECOND, to next year's Monrolog staff, we leave four good typewriters, and one dollar for the patrons' page.

THIRD, to Miss Curtiss, we leave two uniformed sergeants-at-arms for the library.

FOURTH, to Mr. Rose, we bequeath one eighteen-foot slide rule.

FIFTH, to Mr. Harmon, we leave a new car with a plate glass bottom, so he can see who the students run over.

SIXTH, to Mrs. Quinlavin, we leave one jar of vanishing cream for her newly painted ceiling.

SEVENTH, to Mr. Rockcastle, we leave a three year subscription to "Modern Detective".

EIGHTH, to Mr. Albrecht, we bequeath one automatic-threading film projector.

NINTH, to Miss Murray, we leave the newest handbook on rules for classroom procedure.

TENTH, to Mr. Beghold, we would leave, but he has already left us.

ELEVENTH, to next year's athletic teams, we leave one large jar of vitamin pills, and a pound of "Vigro".

TWELFTH, to the future cheerleaders, we leave one dozen raspberry lollipops.

THIRTEENTH, to our noble, if not high-priced bookstore, we bequeath one easy-to-use tax-adding machine.

FOURTEENTH, to the Eighth Graders, we leave the wish that they will all grow a foot during the summer, so that they will be able to look down on the new eighth graders next fall.

FIFTEENTH, to the Freshmen, we leave the privilege of discovering the mysteries of an assembly for "upper classmen only".

SIXTEENTH, to the Sophomores, we leave the hope that they will not all lose their voices by shouting in their election campaigns next year.

SEVENTEENTH, to the Juniors, we bequeath our advisor, Mr. Lang.

EIGHTEENTH, to the school, we the Seniors leave.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto subscribed our names the twenty-eighth day of March, in the year Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-two.

Bookstore

The Book Shelf Club members help the librarians in the selection and ordering of new books, the processing of books and magazines for circulation, reference work, and inventory. The club prepared a Christmas basket for a needy family and sent a CARE package overseas. Halloween, Christmas, and St. Patrick's parties were held, besides an awards picnic. The Bookstore is a handy place for students to purchase school supplies. Monroe pupils give up their free time to work in the Bookstore.

Dear Betty,
Now I don't know what to say - we've had such a terrific year. I really think The Logs are good - despite the mistakes, and the cover. We've had a lot of fun on our double-dates - especially the Prom. Have lots of fun at Smith next year - and watch out for the "Twinkly" boy! Loads of luck!
Love,
Judy

Betty -
you are still my vote for the girl most likely to succeed! My respect for you - your personality, character intellect good looks, + everything about you is infinite! Everything I do with you, whether English Lit. or the Prom, takes on a special glow because of you. I look forward to lots of good times with you in the future - cause you have a bright future! On to Smith!
Love,
Barbara

L. to R.: Miss L. Mandrino, Mrs. I. Zugelder, B. Lane, L. Heicklen, R. Goldman.

Main Office Aides

Switchboard operators receive special training while they relay calls during time which they normally would have study halls. The Main Office Aides also give up their study periods to help as messengers, typists, and clerks. The Attendance Secretaries collect the absence cards every morning and help to compile the absence lists that are sent out daily to each teacher.

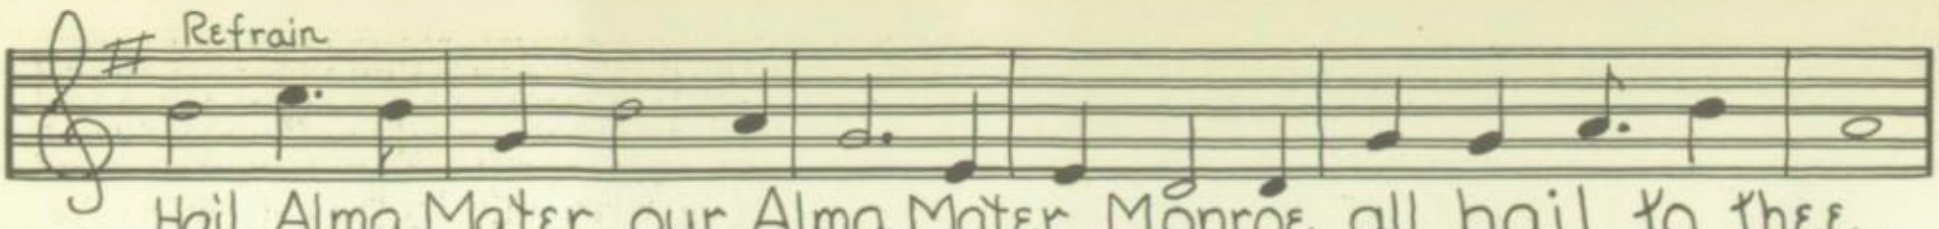
Greenhouse Club

The Greenhouse Club is a service organization responsible for the maintenance of the school greenhouse. Although its chief function is the raising of seedlings and potted plants for a Spring sale, business is combined with pleasure through numerous parties and an annual picnic. While serving the school, the members of this small club gain invaluable experience in applied botany.



The Little Symphony

The Little Symphony was organized this year under the direction of Mr. Arnold Cantor. The group meets every other Sunday at members' homes to practice for improvement and enjoyment.

Fencing Club

Fencing makes for suppleness, grace of movement, and agility, a combination of mental and physical training. It calls for the highest association between brains and muscle, the closest co-ordination between brain, eye, hand, and foot. Fencing has been well characterized as "a conversation with a foil".

Pencil Pushers Club

Pencil Pushers meet twice a week for reading and criticism of original writing of any form. The criticism, constructive and politely expressed, is frank; hence, members cannot be too thin-skinned.

L. to R.: S. Lannin, B. Schafheimer, S. Finke, B. Shacter, I. Morgenstern, Vice-Pres.; S. Dworski, Sec.; J. Clement, Mrs. J. Stolbrand, Advisor; N. Goldstein, M. DeGogorza, D. DeAngelis, N. Adelphians

The Adelphians this year have kept up their steady pace of activities. Last Christmas vacation was spent in Syracuse with a brother society, the Aronians. This Easter the Aronians visited Rochester as the guests of the Adelphians. As usual the Adelphians presented a book to the school library as a token of gratitude to Monroe.

Cheerleaders

Monroe has always been known to have an enthusiastic cheerleading squad; this year was no exception. In Miss Pooler's absence, the girls have had to carry on alone. Almost every morning before school they could be heard devising new cheers and practising the old ones. Monroe can be especially proud of this year's morale boosters.

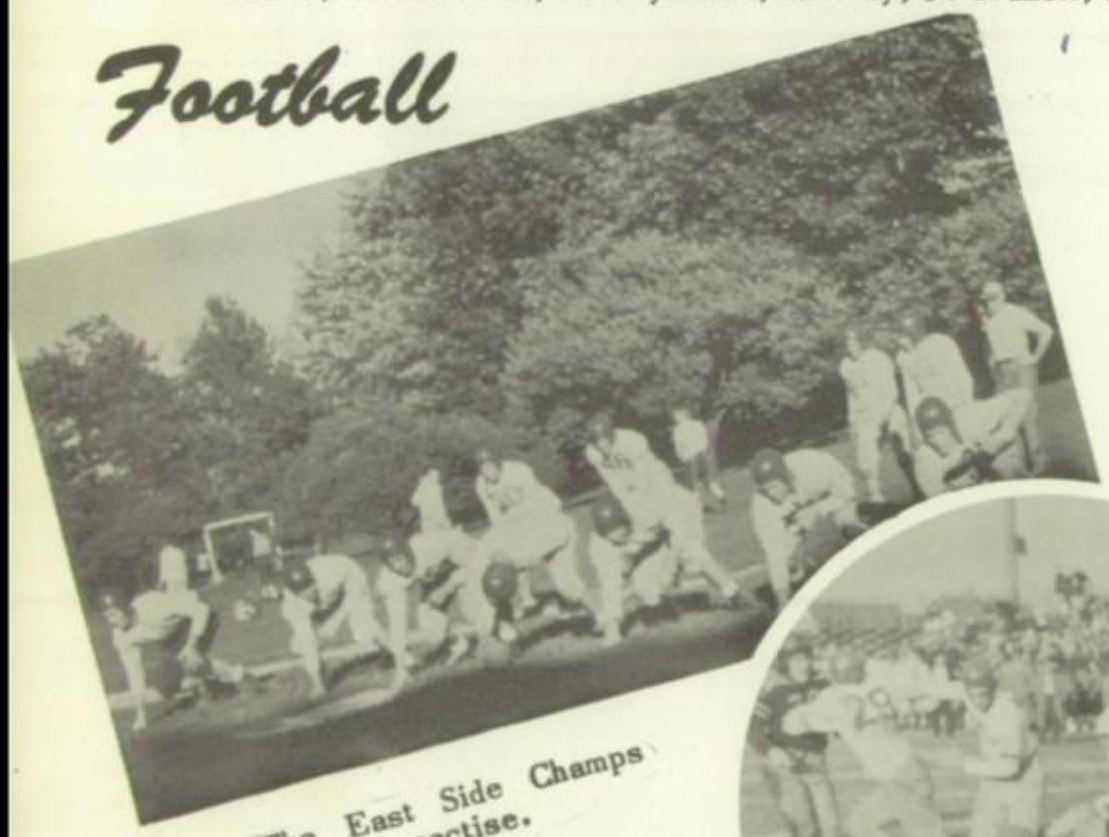
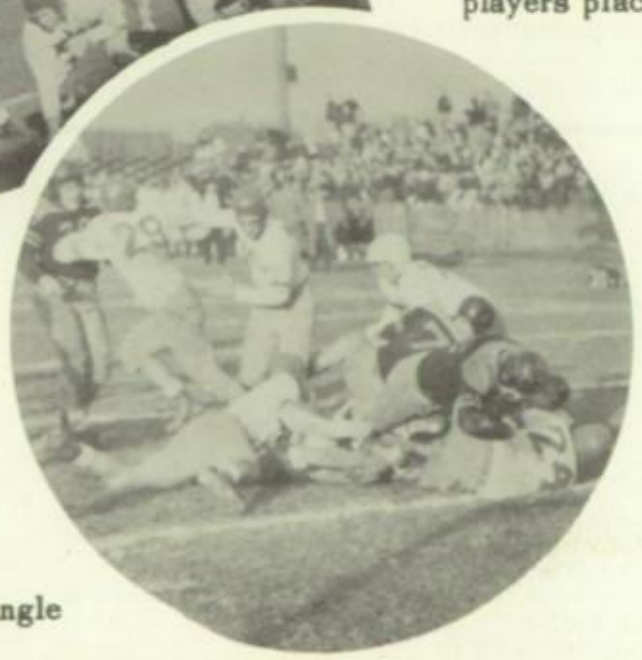
Football



The East Side Champs line up for practise.



West and Monroe tangle on the goal line.

Under the able instruction of Coach Beghold, "Chick" Schmidt, and Jim Butts, Monroe's grid squad reversed a pre-season prediction. Although rated as underdogs, the gridders upset all but two opponents. In a non-league game at Brighton, the Redjackets edged the Barons 14-13 after a 13-10 half time deficit. Monroe again showed the traditional get-up-and-go spirit by easing Franklin out of the way 21-19. Playing excellent ball throughout the rest of the season, Monroe gained the Eastern Division title. Several players placed on All-Scholastic teams.

Although inexperienced, this year's Cross-Country team excelled by taking second place in the city behind Madison. Mr. Ferner worked hard with the team, and it is expected that the veterans will form the nucleus of a strong team next year.

Track

Even though Coach Wallace's 1951 cinder-crushers succumbed to Franklin, Madison, Charlotte, West, and Edison, the spirit of the team was overwhelming. The runners came over the hurdles and across the finish line into a tie for fifth place.

Varsity Bowling

Buanomo's alleys, scene of the 1952 bowling league, witnessed Monroe's squad roll into fourth place. Gary Shafer, captain of the Thursday nighters saw his 165 average very closely followed by Glenn Quetschenbach's 161 and Larry Buttach's 160. A well rounded team is hard to beat.

L. to R.: G. Shafer, P. Betlam, L. Buttach, B. Beckler, G. Quetschenbach. Absent: M. Mendell.

Sonny Love and Bill Lane, captains of the reserves, get set for their strikes.

New among Monroe's athletes this year were the reserve bowlers. Divided into two teams, the Reds and Blues, our pin men bowled their way along into first and third places respectively. In the playoffs the reserves showed poorly.

Reserve Bowling

Soccer

Although the Booters didn't fare well in interscholastic league play, the boys gained a great deal from their new coach, Mr. Wheeler, and will prove a threat next year. The team finished the season with every boy having seen action in several games, and a record of 1 win, 6 defeats.

L. to R.: G. Moffitt, E. Bickford, H. Davidson, P. Hallock, R. Mitchell, W. Walrath.

Ed Bickford tees off.

Golf

The addition of Brighton and Irondequoit to the Interscholastic Golf League saw the competition for our divot-diggers grow. Even so, our linksmen really turned up the turf. Franklin fell first by a 10-2 margin, followed by Marshall, West, Jefferson, Irondequoit, and Charlotte. Losses to East, Edison, and Brighton set Monroe in a three-way tie for first place as the season closed.

Varsity Basketball

Monroe's '51-'52 Basketball team was a real threat in inter-scholastic league play. Under the able guidance of Coach Wheeler, during the first half of league play the boys won six games and lost three to end up tied for second place. Ken Hale and "Dutch" Hallock paced the team by hitting double figures in most of the games.

The second half proved a sad disappointment for Monroe fans, as the hoopsters were able to defeat only 4 of 9 opponents. However, the boys never stopped trying. Leading the attack for Monroe in the second half were Pete Brunett and "Dutch" Hallock.

Reserve Baseball

Although the Reserve Basketball team won only five of their twelve games this season, they gave every team in the league a good fight. Coached by Mr. Butts, the future varsity hopefuls practiced and played hard, and gained much experience. Lead by Dick Smith and "Pooch" Gross, the Reserves downed West, Jefferson, Paul Revere, Charlotte, and Franklin, but lost to the other teams in their circuit. The competition in the 1952 Reserve League was keen and even in defeat the scores were close.

With many of the boys moving up to the Varsity next fall, Monroe can expect a good season with Monroe's Varsity in 1953.

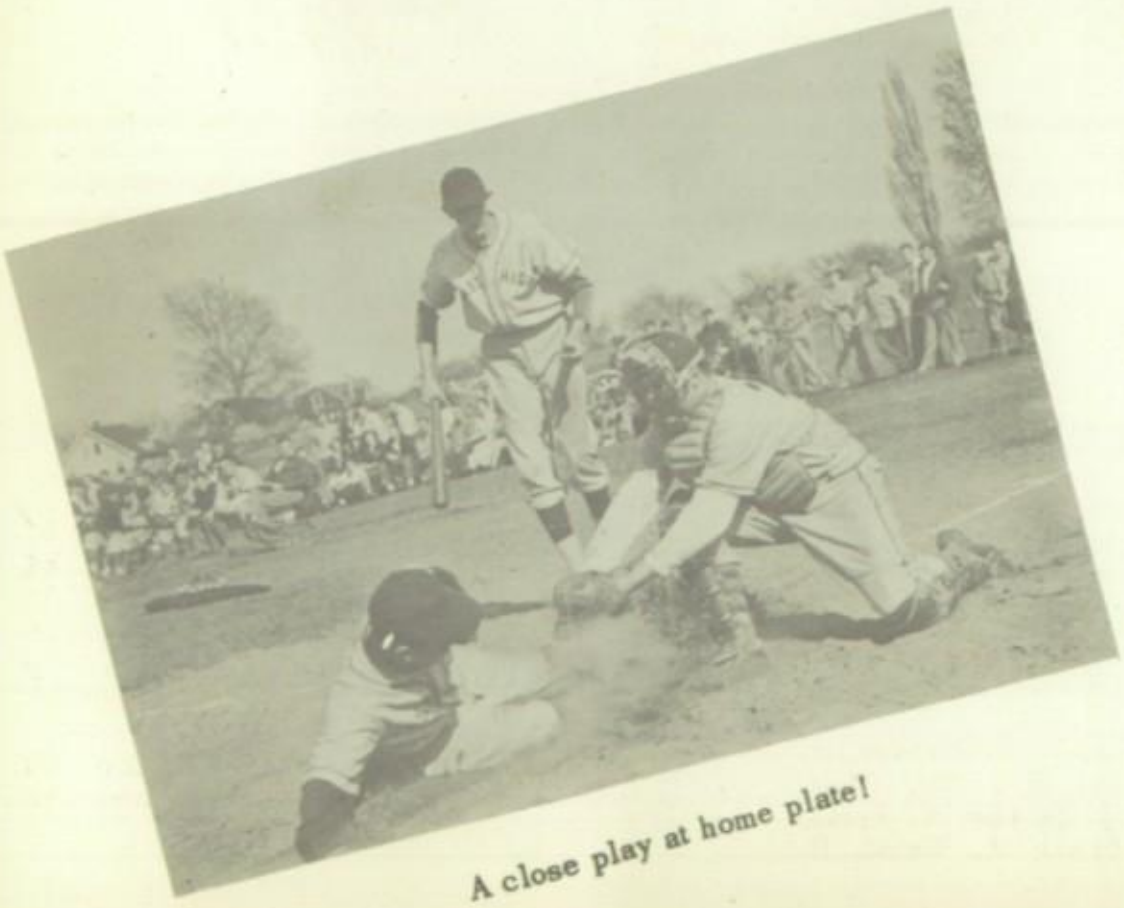
Baseball 1951

Monroe's 1951 diamond aces ended the season in poor league standing, conquering only Madison. Several games were lost by close margins though, making a losing season a thrilling and high-spirited one. The mound duties were handled by Hugh Jones, with Les Koval catching.

Several Monroe players had high averages with Dick Hausman and Ally Abronowitz leading the team.



A close play at home plate!

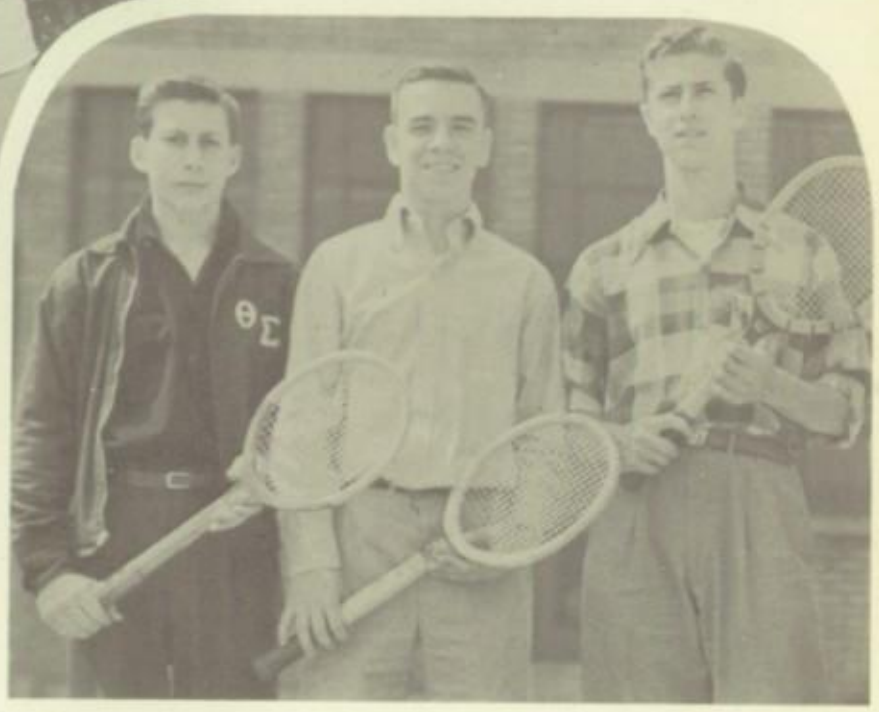
Tennis

Hubie Warner, J. A. Donovan, and Dick Shargel are off for a match.



Another champion team at Monroe was the 1951 tennis team. The netmen, captained by Whit Gerard, shut out 6 of their 7 opponents to take the city championship. The only blemish on their otherwise clean record was a draw with Marshall. A perfect record was compiled by Dick Shargel, who won all his seven matches.

Reserve Baseball 1951

Monroe can be assured of an excellent baseball team next year, if last spring's reserves can add the necessary spark to the varsity. In their series of five games, Monroe lost only to East, 4-2, in an extra inning game for the championship. Ray Hamblin and Adrian Twist each pitched two wins to put the reservists in second place.

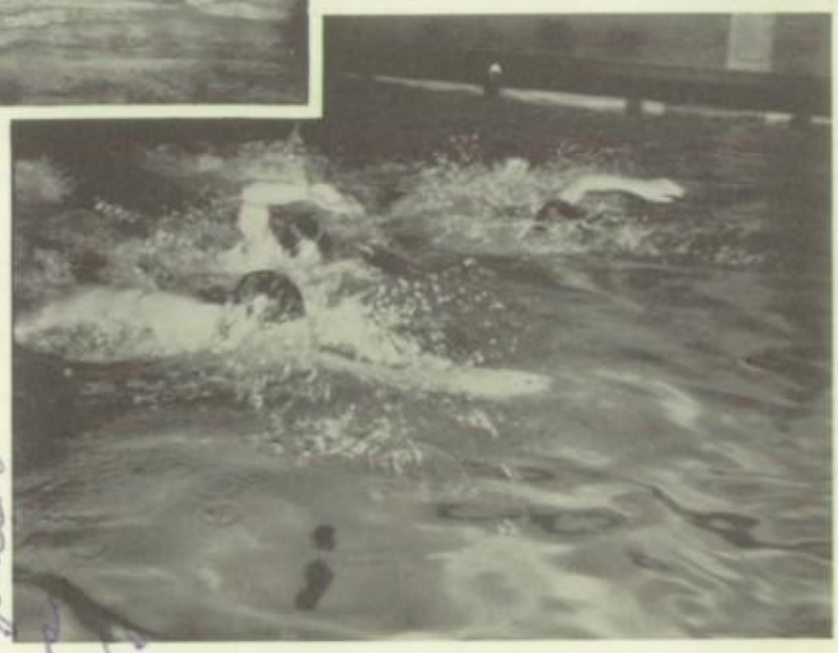
Swimming

Coach Wallace's fin men showed themselves to be true competitive swimmers by winning five of their eight meets against teams that are hard to beat. Prospects for the future look bright, since only two team members are graduating. In sectional competition, Monroe's swimmers shone when Art Arimini took first place in the fifty yard freestyle and Kevin Keogh and Hubie Warner splashed into second place in their respective specialties, although the team placed poorly due to a disqualification.



Monroe's swimmers are off on a race.

Wrestling

Coach Arlauckas' grunt-and-groaners discovered this year that Scholastic wrestling, a matter of leverage, speed and experience rather than of brute force, is quite different from television style wrestling. However, with the proper school spirit, Monroe's young stars will improve this year's record of no wins and make wrestling one of Monroe's leading spectator sports. Vin Cali, Bill Baxter and Bill Welch were outstanding wrestlers.

Intramurals

Intramural athletics in Monroe are looking up. Competition is keen and interest strong. The Shastas, champion eleventh and twelfth grade hoopsters, won every game, as did the Dwarves, ninth and tenth grade champs, who, incidentally, claim the title for the second year in a row. In the spirited eighth grade rivalry, honors were taken by Home Room 160.

Association

The Girls' Athletic Association has completed another successful year of promoting sportsmanship and competition among the girls of Monroe. Attendance at after-school sports has been both high and enthusiastic. The girls, in a spirit of good fun and fellowship, have participated in volleyball, basketball, baseball, swimming, and ping pong. These after-school activities are to develop skill but more essentially, they are to encourage good sportsmanship and fun.

A highlight of the year was the Valentine square dancing party held by Madison's Girls Athletic Association. A group of girls from each public high school was invited. The event was a big success, and those who attended had a wonderful time.

Dear Betty,
This is an appropriate place to start if ever there was one. The "log" was one of the experiences that I'll remember always. You sure made the cutest & most efficient editor Monroe ever had. I said what I really wanted to at the Prom Sat. night - but I do mean it. I hope graduation doesn't mean the end of our friendship because I'll feel bad about it. I know you'll have a wonderful time at Smith & I hope you'll write & tell me all about it. Thanks for being such a wonderful friend.
Best always,
Liz

Dear Betty,

I hope, as everyone does, that you'll have every thing in life that ~~of~~ it offers. Monroe Miss you Betty and so wis o.

Oh best of luck always -

Shirley Andrews

Dear Betty,

Of all the girls in our class, I want to continue my friendship with you the most. You are so perfect in every way and still so unconcerned and I was praying that you'd get your scholarship. I mean that. I was honestly praying for you. Now I wish I hadn't because it means I'll have to see you as much as I have been. Now you get more and more nicer. Whenever you are home next year, I hope you'll come to see me. Let's have some good times together. I'll always remember you as one of my dearest friends.

Love,
Lynn

P.S. I could never express everything that I'd like to say but I think you understand.

Dear Betty,
I'm glad I got to know you this year. Best of luck in everything.
Love,
Phyllis Carter
